

The book of Ruth beautifully reveals that entrance into the coming Kingdom of God is not determined by birth, bloodline, or background, but by a life shaped by faith-filled obedience to the will of God. Ruth tells a story of redemption—of emptiness giving way to fullness, bitterness transformed into joy. It is a powerful witness to the beauty of selfless, covenant love. In meeting us in our deepest longings, the story of Ruth ultimately points us beyond itself to the Redeemer who alone can restore what has been lost and make us whole again.
