

In this series, Whatever Is... we will be confronted with Paul's continued invitation to think and do. Paul never separated discipleship of the mind from discipleship of the body, and he invites us to not just think better thoughts, but to become a different kind of people. See what is true. Live what is noble. Take on what is right. Become what is pure. Love what is lovely. Practice what is admirable, and the God of Peace will be with you.
